Dear AYSO Parents,

Once the head coach has assumed charge of the children on his/her team, the coach remains responsible until a duly designated adult has taken charge of each child after practice or a game.

No child shall be left unsupervised after a game or practice. Parents who are unreasonably late or consistently tardy may be reported to the regional Child and Volunteer Protection Advocate for action. Each coach may establish a standing policy of where children may be picked up by late parents.

AYSO does not encourage children to walk home or to a friend or relative's house. However, we recognize that it may be necessary in some cases.

Neither AYSO nor the coach can be responsible for a child's safety if they do walk home. A parent or guardian assumes full responsibility for the safety of the child once he or she is released from a practice or a game.
